

WINE LIST 2014

			175ml Glass	Bottle
1.	Las Toscas Sauvignon Blanc	Chile	£4.85	£19.50
	Fresh, tangy, tingly, citrus and pineapple flavoured white, made to make your mouth water
2.	Pinot Grigio Garganega	Italy	£5.00	£21.00
	Good, clean peachy fun with the Soave grape, Garganega, giving the Pinot Grigio a bit of punch
3.	Murphys Unoaked Chardonnay	Australia		£21.00
	The brave new world of Ozzie Chardonnay; untouched by oak, still creamy and tropical but freshened by a dash of citrus
4.	Grand Cape Viognier	Coastal Region, South Africa		£21.00
	A superb example of this fragrant white grape which combines floral aromas with very ripe, rich, apricot fruit- great for those who find Sauvignon too green
5.	Les Oliviers Colombard	Gascogne, France		£22.00
	A white with real personality- vivid, crisp green fruit that tastes exactly like electric grapefruit juice"
6.	Rioja Blanco Vina Anzarena	Rioja, Spain		£22.00
	Yes, they do white wine too! Based on the Viura grape, it's elegantly dry, medium-bodied and refreshing
7.	Handmade Chenin Blanc	Stellenbosch, South Africa		£25.00
	One of the bargains of the wine world- incredibly old vines (100 years plus) give concentration and balance- intense but zesty!
8.	The Cut Sauvignon Blanc	Nelson, New Zealand		£28.00
	A white with an edge; piercing mango; a stab of passion fruit; a slash of citrus zest; an up-thrust of cut grass; packed to the hilt with fruity things; enjoy but just don't point it at anyone
ROSE
9.	Sabina Garnacha Rosada	Spain	£4.85	£19.50
	A pretty vibrant, chunky, dry-but-fruity pink from just next to Rioja, with bags of red fruit flavour and a hint of spice
10.	Big Top White Zinfandel	USA		£23.00
	A classy example of the UK's favourite rose style, juicier than the norm with a preposterous amount of strawberry fruit and pleasing sweetness. ."

WINE LIST 2014

REDS		175ml GL	Bottle
11.	Sabina Tempranillo A gutsy take on its neighbour Rioja's main grape- dark juicy cherry fruit and no oak give a satisfying, moreish red	Navarra, Spain £4.85	£19.50
12.	Murphys Shiraz A classic style of Ozzie Shiraz, with plump, soft, damson fruit and a dusting of christmas spices	Australia £5.00	£21.00
13.	Ca di Ponti Nero D'Avola Big, dark, spicy and meaty- the indigenous "Black of Avola" is bliss to those after full-bodied thrills on a relative budget	Sicily	£21.00
14.	Montevista Merlot Central Valley, A super-soft cassis-laden red with dark depths of fruit and lengthy finish	Chile"	£22.50
15.	Bellefontaine Cabernet Sauvignon A cracking Cab, with the punchy blackcurrant flavours you'd expect but softer and more easy-going.	Pays D'Oc, France	£23.00
16.	Montepulciano D'Abruzzo Conviviale "An inky, intense vibrant morello cherry fruit-flavoured red, layered up with bramble and a soft, sweet lick of oak.	Italy	£23.00
17.	False Bay Pinotage A modern style of Pinotage, with bright, clear black fruit and a whisper of spice"	South Africa	£25.00
18.	Emiliana Reserva Pinot Noir Pitch-perfect Pinot; light-looking but giving a heady perfume of red fruit and oak spice, then juicy and flavoursome in the mouth without richness.	Bio-Bio Valley, Chile	£27.50
FIZZY		375ml	Bottle
19.	Prosecco Primo Frizzante Peaches-and-cream flavoured, soft, ripe, gently sparkling version of this increasingly popular style"	NV Italy	£25.00
20.	Gobillard Brut Tradition As fresh and clean as a whistling daisy, this is very modern style of Champers from a family producer - lots of citrus fruit and fine bubbles make it very approachable. Puts the big producers to shame!"	NV France £25.00	£45.00
